BETWEEN

Men's and Boys' Clothing

We make no difference in this case and furnish all attention to detail. There is no sweat-shop work on any of our Suits. Is not this worth the thoughtful consideration of mothers? Isn't it worth paying a trifle more to have your boy's suit made in a proper manner? If the wife were consulted, wouldn't she insist that the husband avoid wearing sweat-shop clothing?

We have just received a new line of STAR WAISTS, with and without collars. Just the thing for the school season.

Also a fine line of EXTRA PANTS for MEN and BOYS.

Extraordinary efforts have been made by us to find and prepare the things needful for your good appearance and comfort—the very best SUITS for MEN and BOYS; Shirts, Hats, Outing Flannels, etc.

All these are worthy of your attention, being fashionable in cut and stylish in appearance.

Our Two Big Stores and their services are at your command.

No order too great for prompt attention; none too small for the strictest care.

ANTONIO MANIZ LIBERALLY FINED BY JUDGE WILCOX

Assessed $25 For Assault On Soldier
John Welsh—Electric Car Collision Case.

Antonio Maniz, who followed John Welsh through the streets of Kakaako, some two weeks ago, and when in a secluded place assaulted him, was fined $25 by Judge Wilcox yesterday morning, who in sentencing the defendant, said that the real truth of the matter was that Maniz was a "sawdigger" looking for trouble, and that on the night in question he had probably had too many glasses of beer and had grown too brave for the safety of sober citizens. "However, I don't think you are much of a fighting man, when you are sober," added the court. "Your ears are not close enough to your head. I will fine you $25 and costs." J. E. Brown was also fined $25, and costs for assault and battery upon Kaie. Brown was alleged to have smashed the native over the head with a fence picket. The case of Wright, the motorman who was arrested as a result of the tramcar and electric car collision some weeks ago, was transferred to Judge Dickey's court by Judge Wilcox, who said he was too busy to try the case in his court. The trial will come up on Monday. The cases of the Kalimapehi boys, charged with assaulting a Chinese, have also been transferred to Judge Dickey's court. The grand jury has indicted Osaki Mankichi, the Japanese alleged to have been mixed up in a riot at Kahuku, and he will be tried in the Circuit Court. One of the complaining witnesses in the case of five natives who are alleged to have beaten two Chinese at Moanalua, was too ill to appear in court yesterday, and Judge Dickey continued the cases until Saturday.

May Sam, a Chinese hack driver, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of a certain white man living in a Nuuanu street boarding house, near Kukui. Through this man the police hope to gather in three others. The four men are charged by the driver with having taken a long drive in his hack and refusing to pay for the same. He claims that when he demanded his fare near the Orpheum, on Fort street, they set upon him and bound his hands with the reins, then ran away.

IVERS-SCOTT WEDDING.

Brilliant Ceremony at St. Andrew's Cathedral Yesterday Noon.

On the stroke of 12 at high noon yesterday a brilliant wedding, and probably the prettiest of the year, took place at St. Andrew's Cathedral. The large auditorium of the cathedral was crowded to its capacity with elegantly-gowned ladies and men in formal dress, friends of the popular young couple who were to take the nuptial vows, Miss Gertrude Scott and Mr. Richard Ivers. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and white flowers, masses of greens and blossoms hanging from rail and pillar and the archway over the platform where the ceremony was performed was a pretty bower of Marguerites and ferns.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white satin, elaborately trimmed in shirred white chiffon, and old lace, and an embroidered tulle bridal veil, with orange blossoms, completed a beautiful wedding costume.

Miss Marian Scott, sister of the bride and maid of honor, was prettily dressed in white, with touches of pink, and Miss Edith Spalding, and Miss Helene Irwin, bridesmaids, also wore dainty gowns of white and pink, carrying baskets of pink roses.

The ushers were Messrs. J. T. McGrew, Major Potter, Richard Spalding, Phillip Lansdale and Harry Whitney. As the bridal party, preceded by the maid of honor, advanced up the aisle, Wray Taylor played the bridal march from Lohengrin on the church organ, and during the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh in accordance with the Episcopal rite, the soft strains of Schubert's Serenade were heard. The Mendelssohn wedding march pealed forth from the organ as the bridal party left the church.

A sumptuous wedding breakfast was given at the residence of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony, the invited guests being: Mrs. Ivers (mother of the groom), Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Mackintosh, Miss Marian Scott, Miss Helene Irwin, Miss Edith Spalding, Mr. Harry Whitney, Mr. George Potter, Mr. Phillip Lansdale, Mr. Richard Spalding, Mr. Tarn McGrew and Mr. Leslie Scott.
